Gist of the programme : 01st Sep: The circular arrived for the Gyan Saptah celebration. A meeting was conducted with the staff members and union members. A detailed planning of how the celebration has to be carried out was discussed. The distribution and the management of various activities were done for the rest of the days of the celebration.

02nd Sep: Today the College conducted various activities to honour the celebration. It started with Patriotic song 'Kar chale hum fida jano tan sathiyo' sung by Hetal Solanki, which was followed by a speech on Gandhiji's contribution for the independence of India delivered by Monika Chandak. To grace the celebration Hetu Sharma recited the poem by an Indian Poet Amita Modi titled 'Three Curtains'. All the students enjoyed the three activities conducted in the Assembly and also had moist eyes after listening to the Patriotic Song. After the regular lectures, college also conducted a sports activity of playing Chess. The students actively participated in the game and adorned the celebration. After the game, students are all geared up for the next day's activity of Teacher's Day celebration.

03rd Sep: On this day, our students got an opportunity to enact like their teachers and first three lectures were given by Hetu Sharma, Rakha Gadiya and Parul Darji. After this cultural programme was organised this started with Guru Vandana, followed by felicitation of professors by flowers. Hetal Sharma mesmerized the entire AGAIN by her song. After song, a speech was given by Babitha Reddiar on 'Ideal teacher'. Students of our college showed their acting skills in a Gujarati drama titled 'Aaj no Shikshak'.

04th Sep: Today the College conducted an activity on expression of innovative ideas. Students were asked to write down their innovative ideas on paper chits and drop them into a box, kept in the classroom. Students enthusiastically participated and expressed their ideas. Also, another activity of poster presentation was carried out. Poster was prepared with slogans on 'Women Empowerment' written by students of the class.

05th Sep: An oath Taking Ceremony of members of Student Union was carried out. The chief guest of the programme was Dr. B.R Chaudhari (Retired professor of A.G Teachers College). The programme was hosted by Monika Chandak. The G.S, L.R and all the members of student Union took their oath in presence of the chief guest, the Principal, faculty members and students.
