Agenda-2 Change in University Affiliation

As per Government of Gujarat Resolution, College was disaffiliated from Gujarat University and fresh affiliation with Indian Institute of Teacher Education, Gandhinagar was sought. Due process was completed successfully and IQAC committee welcomed the move.

Agenda-3 Guidance for functioning of college from new academic term Year 2020-21

Members agreed to adopt MS Teams platform for online class and Government training was taken by ETRP on 17-06-2020. Necessary training will be organized for in-house faculty apart from the training of GoG. Due focus on online pedagogy to be given so quality of teaching is not suffered.

Shri B M Shah and college principal had a telephonic talk to avail IT facilities of Ahmedabad University if college wishes to conduct any webinar. This was a great help by management representative as college is at a nascent stage in online mode.

Dr. A H Kalro had mentioned to organize webinars on the theme of new normal in academic council and advisory meet. This thought was call upon action by IQAC team and it was decided that webinar based on "New Normal Teaching" will be designed by faculties.

Activity plan 2020-21 is to be prepared and online activities will be designed on priority basis due to the uncertainty of the situation. Dr Thakkar suggested to design a webinar in joint venture on the theme "NEP 2020" to spread the awareness of NEP2020 among school sector.

Due precautions and guidelines will be followed and online classes will commence as WFH policy was the voice of IQAC team.

It was decided unanimously that each faculty member will attend as many as FDP possible to sharpen their skills regarding online pedagogy, online assessment and research. Faculty were requested to post the brochures they receive in the staff group so more can participate.

As the affiliating university had changed, faculty had to prepare afresh for teaching and hence it was decided that on demand library facilities will be available to faculty till pandemic situation gets under control.

GS of the college will be informed regarding meeting discussion.
